Memberships in the Montevallo Branch of AAUW for the coming year are now being accepted. We very much hope you will choose to renew your membership or to become a new member. AAUW also emphasizes the importance of friendship and cooperation of people from many backgrounds and different parts of the community. It is a great place to meet new friends and to have exciting new experiences while supporting AAUW’s mission of education, equality, and a stronger society. The Montevallo Branch has just completed a great year, in which we made significant strides on the local and the national levels in our support of equality of educational opportunity from kindergarten through graduate school. AAUW needs your help and support now more than ever as we strive for equity, education, and a better society for all.

Our branch offers informative programs and projects on local, national, and international issues affecting women and their families including public policy and social justice, educational opportunity, health care, diversity, and the environment.
