Sally Hardig

This award is given to a woman in recognition of efforts to advocate for activities and policies that advance education and/or equity for women and girls. She is a person who has made a significant contribution to her community through her service.

ADVOCACY

EDUCATION

Ruth Truss

This award is given to a woman in recognition of efforts to shape and improve the lives of women and girls through education. She is an example of what women can accomplish when they dedicate their time to providing support and direction to students.

Tiffany Bunt

This award is given to a woman who, through longstanding membership and continuing service both to the organization and to the community, has come to represent clearly the principles that AAUW stands for, including equity for all women and girls, life-long education, and positive societal change.

PATHFINDER

RESEARCH

Amy Samuels

This award is given to a woman in recognition of efforts to improve the lives of women and girls through research and has a record of exemplary achievement in her profession or field of work.

Rachel Johnson

This award is given to a student who has exemplified the ideals of AAUW's mission statement through her research, advocacy or education. She is someone whose individual excellence merits recognition.
